Battle with Pikachu

For fans around the world of all ages, Pikachu is a beloved Pokémon icon and regarded with deep affection and nostalgia. You can take this Pokémon from cute and adorable to battle-ready action with the change of a pose! Pikachu is a classic example of the amazing creatures we have met over the decades, and the stories that keep us coming back to the Pokémon universe.

From the LEGO® Pokémon™ Trainers

Recreating Pikachu's cute and curved shapes and dynamic pose in LEGO® bricks was a fun design challenge – and we hope this comes across in your building experience! In LEGO building, the simpler a shape appears, the more challenging it is to build. The bottom of Pikachu's face, for example, uses a combination of clips and bars, reversing the studs' direction to connect it to the rest of the head. New LEGO elements helped us recreate Pikachu's smooth shapes, proportions, fierce personality and – not least – cuteness! Even the tail required design workarounds, and the central support structure had to be sturdy enough to hold 1,300 LEGO elements and still have a hollow space for the secondary stand. You can pose your Pikachu in mid-leap from the Poké Ball, ready to jump into action as your battle buddy, or off the structure, just looking straight-up adorable!
